

ALONG THE WATERFRONT.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMERS
IWALANI KEAUCHOU AND KAALA.

Departure of the W. G. Hall and Kilauea Hou—Other Items Cleared Alongshore Today.

Liner Australia out tomorrow afternoon. The steamer Makee brought 1100 bags of Kapas rice in this morning and 13 passengers. The Aldergrove with general merchandise for Davies & Co. is 122 days out from Liverpool.

The steamer W. G. Hall left for Kona and Kau with a full load and every available passenger room filled this morning.

The steamer Kaala brought 1200 bags of Walalua sugar which is being unloaded into the bark R. P. Rithet.

The bark Andrew Welch sailed for San Francisco this morning with 750 tons of sugar and one passenger. Another passenger was booked but was compelled to stop over. The provisional clearing license of the bark C. D. Bryant has been returned to the custom office and cancelled.

The steamer Iwalani arrived this morning from Honolulu with 4029 sacks of paddy and 15 passengers. She will go back early next week. Plenty of rain is reported on windward Oahu.

The steamer Keauhou came in empty from Hanalei this morning and left for Lahaina this afternoon.

The steamer Likelike with one passenger and a big freight left yesterday afternoon for Papeete and way ports.

The schooner Laura Pike is at Hanalei, having finished discharging her cargo of general merchandise from the coast for Makaweli and other Kauai plantations. She will leave in a day or two in ballast for Eureka for a load of lumber.

The bark Alden Beale has sailed from San Francisco for Port Blakely to load lumber for Honolulu. Captain Potter says he expects to make the shortest run of the season, as his vessel is in fine order and ready to sail a race for a cup. Captain Potter is paying the full rate of wages.

The British bark Cupica, from Oregon, had a startling experience while on the way to Queenstown, where she has just arrived. Two great spars, lashed upon decks, got loose in a storm and played havoc on her decks. The fittings, the bulwarks and the deckhouses were damaged, and the men had to seek refuge in the rigging until the spars caught and held.

Skipper Erickson of the wave-defying schooner Elvina from Eureka unfolds a tale of startling weirdness. Coming down the coast he was boarded one dark night by a visitor from the watery realms of the sea-serpent. It had a body, so he says, about four inches long, six legs, two arms, nine fingers on each hand, and had only one eye. The night was dark and a few pallid stars gave out a ghastly light—just the sort of time for marine spooks and old spirits to be abroad. Bold Skipper Erickson of the wave-defying schooner Elvina caught the creature and preserved it in alcohol for the savants of Stockholm to ponder over.
